As a Philosopher, he's served tens of thousands of people from nearly every country in the world with his Heroic membership and trained over 3,500 people from 90+ countries with his Heroic Coach program—which has been demonstrated through research to change lives.
- His YouTube channel has 225,000+ subscribers and 20 million views while his podcast has another 14 million downloads. He was also featured in the documentary Finding Joe on Joseph Campbell and the modern hero's journey alongside Deepak Chopra, Laird Hamilton, Tony Hawk and the late Sir Ken Robinson.
- Most recently, in March 2021, with the support of 2,500+ Founding Investors from 75+ countries around the world, his business, Heroic Public Benefit Corporation, made history as the first company to close a $5M Reg CF equity crowdfunding as part of their $11M Seed round.

BRITTANY LONEY

- Brittany is the director and creator of the Elite Cognition and Human Optimization (ECHO), program at Core One, a leading provider of specialized solutions for Special Operations Forces (SOF) and Intelligence Community customers.
- She has over 12 years of experience training SOF personnel and was the first cognitive performance coach embedded within a USASOC Tactical Human Optimization and Rapid Rehabilitation (THOR3) Program.
- Since THOR3, Brittany has dedicated herself to building and implementing cognitive training programs across SOF, the U.S. national security community, and government sectors. She routinely consults with numerous DoD and other U.S. government personnel to bring about the effective assimilation of cognitive performance principles within training and career pipelines.
- Brittany has a Ph.D. in Educational Psychology and Learning Systems from Florida State University, an M.A. in Kinesiology with an emphasis on Performance Psychology from California State University, Fresno, an M.S. in Exercise Science from Florida State University, and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Texas State University where she was also an NCAA Division 1 basketball player. She lives her profession, spending much of her time working out, ultra-running, hiking, paddle boarding, and researching neuroscience, performance, and cognition.

MIKE MANAZIR

- Mike Manazir has a passion for stories, leadership, big ships, fast jets, thundering Harleys, and one woman: Kelly, his bride of more than forty years.
- He is a graduate of Top Gun and commanded an F-14 squadron, the USS Nimitz aircraft carrier, and a Carrier Strike Group. Mike retired as a Two-Star Admiral and is now an executive with a Fortune 100 aerospace and defense company.
- He mentors a leadership style based on heart and trust that champions inclusion. Mike believes if you have one or more people looking to you to show the way, you are a leader. He wants to help you be the best leader you can be so you can Lead to Win.
